Larry Shaefer said "I have been to a lot of meetings...Freeport, Clute, Lake Jackson, Oyster Creek, BWA...many times, Brazoria, West Columbia, Alvin, Jones Creek, Iowa Colony and of course Commissioners Court. Nobody apologizes for the use of God in the pledge which was established 62 years ago...actually. I think we need to stop apologizing or how about you put this on the agenda and let's have a public hearing and see what the public thinks of apologizing and the only place in Brazoria County that apologizes for the use of the word God. I think it is offensive. I think it needs to be discussed".
