Suspension of Disconnect Fees

Angleton City Council moved to continue the Declaration of Local Disaster for Public Health Emergency in effect taking measures to reduce the possibility of exposure to COVID-19 and to promote the health and safety of all Angleton residents. City Council agreed to suspend all utility disconnection orders during the pendency of the Emergency Declaration, and suspend charges for disconnect fees. These utility changes will remain in effect until the City of Angleton Public Health Emergency Declaration is terminated.
