Press Release – For Immediate Release

Type of Incident: Burglary of Motor Vehicle

Date: Thursday, August 6, 2020

Suspects: Active Investigation

PUBLIC SAFETY ALERT**

Narrative

Though Angleton Police Department have apprehended one burglary suspect recently, there have been additional vehicles burglarized with a slightly different method that have continued beyond his apprehension.

The Angleton Police are also working to address multiple burglary of motor vehicle incidents within the past few days involving commercial vans that are carrying construction tools. The suspects are accessing the vehicles by using lock breaking tools. The burglaries are occurring at night between 11 P.M. and 6 A.M. The Angleton Police Criminal Investigations Team is actively investigating and pursuing leads to develop and apprehend suspect(s) responsible.

Angleton Police are requesting assistance from its citizens to help solve this case and prevent more property being stolen and vehicles damaged. We are asking that all citizens be extra vigilant to report any unusual activity as well as ensure that you are locking your vehicles and removing valuables from vehicles.

If you have any information about the burglaries, please contact the Angleton Police at 979-849-2383 or Brazoria County Crime Stoppers.

A reward of UP TO $5,000.00 is being offered through Brazoria County Crime Stoppers for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons involved. Persons with information should contact Crime Stoppers at 1-800-460-2222.
